About KÓSHPENDI SADAĞY collectors' coins

Since the ancient times, the bow has been considered to be a nomad's soul and has stood for a sporting and competitive spirit.

The reverse side of KÓSHPENDI SADAĞY coin depicts a nomadic warrior shooting from a bow against the background of cave paintings depicting archers. In the upper part of the coin, there is an image of flying arrows as a symbol of power of nomads' weapons. The obverse of the coin depicts an allegory of protection in the form of a shield, with the Coat of Arms of Kazakhstan in its center. The emblem is circled by an ornamental rosette and inscriptions QAZAQSTAN RESPÝBLIKASY and REPUBLIC OF KAZAKHSTAN in the state and English languages, NBK logo and designation of coin's denomination, its metal, fineness and weight.

KÓSHPENDI SADAĞY collectible coins are made of silver (with gilding). They weigh 31.1 grams, have 38.61 mm in diameter, proof quality, 500 KZT denomination. Total mintage 5 000 coins.
